

Who were the Windrush Generation?

History Defenders - The Windrush Generation

The Windrush Generation had a profound impact in towns and cities across Britain. They had the courage to take the journey to a new land in search of a better life for themselves and future generations of their families. Many helped to boost the workforce and contribute to the growth of their new home - such as those that chose to settle in Ipswich in the 1950s and 60s.

Become a history defender and design your own statue that could sit in the city centre.

Your statue should educate visitors and remind them of the contributions the Windrush Generation made to the growth of their town.

The Windrush Generation
We remember your bravery and thank you for your contributions to the United Kingdom.

Who are Teacher's Pet?

Teacher's Pet have been providing downloadable and playable educational content to early years and primary school teachers for over 14 years. We cover all areas of the curriculum and use a team of in-house teachers and designers to create engaging and memorable concepts, that the children will love.

Why local history?

At Teacher's Pet we want to empower primary school teachers by giving them the tools they need to deliver inspiring and thoughtful lessons about the local area and its history. We believe local history teaching has such an important part to play in a child's wellbeing – helping to give children a sense of pride in where they live.

Our Local History project is designed to provide teachers across the UK with everything they need to successfully carry out a full scheme of teaching about their local area, through key enquiry questions and source led activities.

Working with Historic England gives us access to archived maps and photos for resources and information from knowledgeable local historians, as well helping us to provide the content to you free of charge.
