

Doncaster Shield

Lab. No 716 003

Marine molluscs

The single shell submitted for identification from this Roman site was the upper valve of Ostrea edulis L., the oyster. This is the commonest shellfish species occurring on Roman sites in Britain.

---